DEMOCRATS WILL TAKE NO CHANCES.

TONOMINATE CANDIDATE FOR MAGISTRATE.
OFFICIAL CALL MADE.

Mass Convention Will Be Held Saturday at Dave Smith's Store.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

As well posted attorneys appear to be divided on the question of the necessity for the election of a magistrate in district No. 8, this fall, the Democratic committee does not propose to be caught napping.
At a called meeting of the committee held Monday a mass convention was ordered to be held next Saturday for the purpose of nominating a candidate.
The call is as follows:
OFFICIAL CALL.
Pursuant to action taken by the Democratic committee of Christian county at a meeting held Monday, Sept. 29, 1902, a mass convention of the Democratic voters of magisterial district No. 8 is hereby called to be held at Dave Smith's store Saturday, October 4, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for magistrate in said district.
Hunter Wood, Jr., Geo. V. Green, Chairman.
The First Hill district is composed of the precincts of East Crofton, Baker, Dogwood, and Bluff Springs. N. O. King is the incumbent magistrate, having been appointed by Gov. Beckham to succeed L. B. King, regularly elected, who resigned to become postmaster. During the first week in September Judge W. T. Fowler sprang a surprise by ordering an election for magistrate in the district, claiming that the governor's commission was good only until the November election.
The law apparently prohibits the holding of such an election when a congressman is to be chosen, but another section provides that vacancies occurring in elective offices shall be filled by appointment until the next election at which district or state officers are to be selected. As the first district is to elect a judge of the county court, it is the opinion of Attorney-General Pratt that a magistrate should be elected in the First Hill district.
James M. Clark has been nominated by the Republicans for magistrate.
The certificate of nomination of A. O. Stanley, the Democratic nominee for congress in the Second congressional district, was Monday filed with the county clerk in Henderson county.

Mr. Tobin is in the advertising business and made many friends here during the Ellis' Jubilee last May. He and his bride are now attending the Guthrie fair, where Mr. Tobin is pursuing his avocation. They will return to Hopkinsville next week.

ROUND-UP OF CANDIDATES.

MANY OFFICE-SEEKERS EXPECTED MONDAY.
HENDRICK WILL SPEAK
And Politicians Will Be Here to Circulate Among the Voters.

WHO ARE NOW IN RACE.

The Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, will open his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor of Kentucky at the courthouse next Monday afternoon. As there will be a large crowd here that day it is understood that a number of prominent politicians and candidates for state offices will be present. Some may speak after Mr. Hendrick concludes his address and all of them will circulate among the voters and shake hands with the people.
The field is already full of candidates, and most of them are hustling at a lively rate.
Among the entries up to date are the following:

None But Elks Circus.
It is reported that the circus men will cut out Kentucky owing to low license. The New York American says:
"Circus men are grumbling over the law passed by the Kentucky legislature, making the license for a circus $1 for each 100 voters for each performance in the county where the show is given. Each side show where separate admissions are charged, must pay half as much. Under the old law, trained animal shows only paid a license of $5. The circus men say they will cut Kentucky out of their routes."
But there, little girl (et al.), don't cry. The Elks Barbecue Circus will be held on the 21st inst., and it's more fun than all the rest put together.

BURGLAR GETS RICH BOOTY.

DR. JACKSON'S HOUSE TWICE ENTERED.
FRIGHTENED BY A CRY.

Watch, Diamond and Money Secured at Dr. Sargent's Residence.

His safe was opened.
From Thursday's date.
Tuesday night some one entered the residence of Dr. J. B. Jackson on South Main street, and going to his bedroom secured a purse containing between $45 and $50 from the pocket of his trousers which were hanging on the head of the bed in which he was sleeping.
Last night Mrs. Jackson was awakened by some one moving about in the room and when she looked around she saw, by the reflection of the light in the mirror, a man bending over the chair on which her husband's clothes were hanging. She screamed and the intruder made a dash for the window in the rear of the house by which he had entered. Dr. Jackson hastily responded to his wife's call but the burglar made his escape, leaving no clue, and obtaining no booty.
Last night some one entered the residence of Dr. Andrew Sargent, only two squares from that of Dr. Jackson on the same street and secured a handsome watch worth $100, a diamond pin valued at $30 and $75 in money besides a few minor articles.
The money and watch were in the pockets of the physician's clothes which were thrown over a chair in the bedroom on the second floor in which he and his wife were sleeping. The pin was sticking in his shirt button.
Dr. Sargent had been up nearly all of the preceding night discharging professional duties and therefore slept very soundly last night. Neither he nor his wife were awakened. No trace of chloroform or other soporific were noticeable this morning.
After obtaining everything of value in the doctor's clothes the burglar proceeded to the attic, which is on the lower floor. The combination of the safe had not been thrown off, and as he had taken the keys from the trousers pocket, he easily gained admittance. There was nothing, however, of value in the safe, save a dollar which was kept as a luck piece.
Entrance was made through a kitchen window and the only clue left was two footprints just under the kitchen window. The thief had smoothed these over with his hand. It is thought that the same person was guilty of both robberies, as after the failure at Dr. Jackson's he probably started for town in his trousers pocket, he easily gained admittance. There was nothing, however, of value in the safe, save a dollar which was kept as a luck piece.
Unique Reunion Held.
At Princeton Sunday was held a reunion of seventy children who had been placed in homes in Lyon, Tigg and Caldwell counties by the Kentucky Children's Home society.

The bride to be is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haydon and is a popular and promising young lady. Mr. Bartley is a young gentleman of sterling worth. He is a son of Mr. T. E. Bartley.
Forty Year's Torture.
To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. H. Hany, Geneva, O. He says: "Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years. Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. R. C. Hardwick."
